Our early Christmas Fair in the foyer of Salisbury Library will showcase Plain Arts members with the chance to purchase original art, decorative items and gifts. A great opportunity to get ahead with your Christmas shopping!

Winter Exhibition, 3 Dec - 2 Jan,
Salisbury Community Gallery
Daily during library opening hours

We are pleased to share a wide variety of 2D and 3D art, different styles, different media, celebrating the talent of our members. A truly eclectic mix and another great opportunity to support local and purchase original art.

Winter Wanderland
13, 14, 15 November
Various Venues (see flyer for details)

New for this year, a coordinated promotion of open studio events and exhibitions happening over the weekend of 13, 14, 15 November in and around Salisbury. Not a full on Winter Art Trail, I haven't yet recovered from the last one 😊! What we have produced is a flyer with numbered map and simple list of open studios, exhibitions and events.

We encourage you to 'wander around this wonderland', support our local artists and purchase unique and original gifts this festive season.

Events and Exhibitions

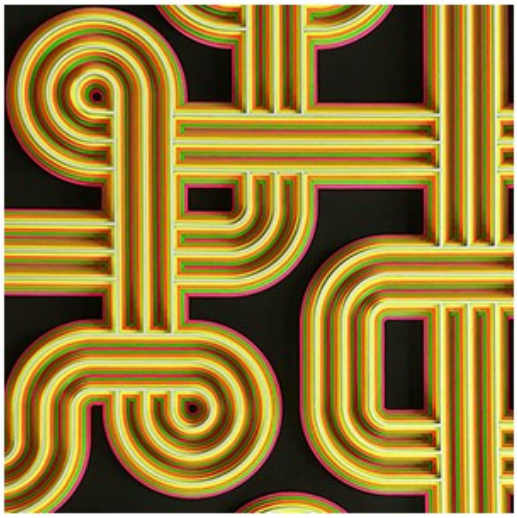

Members, tell us about upcoming events/exhibitions and we'll promote them here and via social media.

We bring you a summary of some of the festive Fairs and Events happening in the coming weeks. I am sure there will be many more, so please do keep your eyes peeled for posts

Thurs 10 Dec	11am - 8pm
Thurs 17 Dec	11am - 8pm

An exciting collaboration between Salisbury 800, Fisherton Mill and the city of Touques, resulting in an exhibition of twenty winning artworks featured at Fisherton Mill, Fri 30 April to Sat 15 May 2027 and Touques, Normandy Sat 3 - Sun 18 July 2027.

The exhibition celebrates the millennium of the birth of William the Conqueror with themes based around the oath of Harold Godwinson made in Touques in 1064, leading to the Norman Conquest of 1066, immortalised by the Bayeux Tapestry, and the oath of Salisbury made by William the Conqueror in 1086. Two shores, two oaths, a conquest, ships, a tapestry, landscapes: many sources of inspiration for this artistic competition and exhibition.

Applications now open, further information available here:
